

CONSTRUCTION[®] READY

The training and credentials you need to earn a great living in construction

At Construction Ready, we prepare individuals from all walks of life to get great construction jobs and build stable construction careers.

You don't need a college degree. What you do need is the motivation to complete our rigorous 20-day program. During the program, you'll meet potential employers and earn the credentials you need to start working in construction.

97% of our graduates get matched with employers during training. You can be one of them.

There's a reason why over 200 employers have hired our graduates

Since 1993, we've matched thousands of graduates with 200+ construction employers. Nearly all of these graduates start off in a full-time position. Most use their first job as a stepping stone to a fulfilling construction career.

Our graduates hold many of the following credentials:

- NCCER Core Credential
- OSHA 10-Hour Card
- First Aid/CPR/BB/AED Certification
- Powder Actuated Tool Certification
- Laser Tool Certification
- Forklift Safety Awareness Credential
- ATSSA Utility Flagger Certification
- Competent Person in Fall Protection Credential

This is how we help

Elevate construction and the skilled trades as a great career path

Place people into excellent entry-level construction jobs with great employers

Recruit people of all ages and backgrounds who want to work in the trades

Connect with industry and community partners to help jobseekers reach their goals

Students earn up to eight industry-recognized credentials, graduates are trained, credentialed, and ready to work

Train people who want to pursue a career in the construction industry
